

Sept. 15th, 1896.

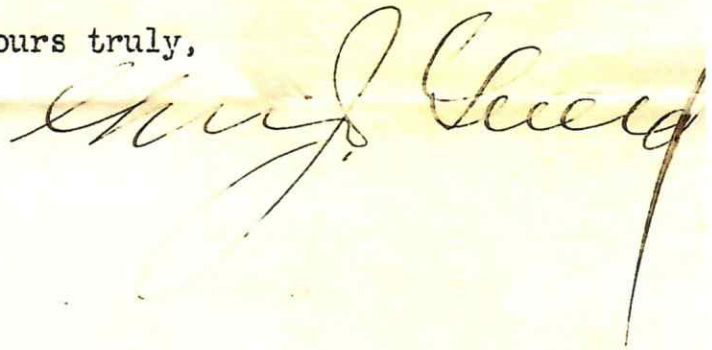

Stratton Todd,

Lakewood, N.J.

Dear Sir:--

Warner has left my service. This letter will be presented to you by Mr. Core, whom I have instructed to go down and take charge of my property for the present. You will please act under his instructions.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "George J. Sweeney". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping tail that extends downwards and to the right.

Jan. 16th 1900.

To The Central Committee,

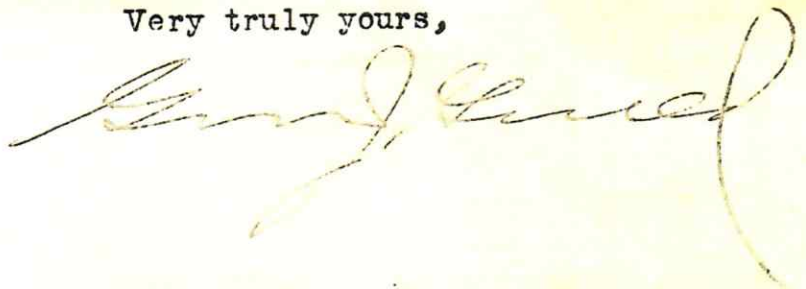

Ulster County, N.Y.

Gentlemen:-

I commend to your consideration Stratton D. Todd of Furlough Lodge, Arkville, New York, an applicant for the position of Game Protector for Ulster County, New York.

Todd has been in my employ for the last eight years and I know him to be honest, trustworthy and capable of enforcing the Game Laws as required by the State statutes.

Very truly yours,
