

circle.

His body was brought to Margaretville on Wednesday and now lies in state in the Masonic lodge room in this village where it will be viewed until noon on Friday. The funeral will be held today, Friday, at 1 o'clock in the Dry Brook church. It will be under Masonic auspices.

There survive two sons, Harrison of Arkville, and Roy of Dry Brook, and one sister, Mrs. Emma Kittle of Plattekill, also two grandchildren in Dry Brook.

510 Electa Stratton
Mullinex
Dyer Todd